Description

The Dynacraft Prophet CB iron is all about enhancing distance and performance featuring Flexface; a thin, special vacuum heat treated high-strength forged 17-4 stainless steel face with variable thickness to push high COR to its maximum limit. The thinner face not only increases ball speed coming off the face, but also allows for improved weight distribution for an ultra-low and deep center of gravity. This results in longer and straighter shots. The stronger lofts work in unison with todayï¾?s lightweight and higher launching shafts. Proven head designs work with all skill levels of golfers looking for the utmost performance for their game.
