Description

The Dynacraft Prophet MB iron is an all-new profile with an unmistakable one-of-a-kind appearance. It is forged from 1020 carbon steel and goes through a meticulously process of precision milling the entire cavity shape down to the very intricate details unseen until now. Feature a narrow sole and topline combined with a minimal amount of offset preferred by lower handicapped golfers. U-shaped grooves are CNC engraved to ensure consistency and spin control and include a non-glare satin nickel/chrome finish.
