Description

Karma Lady Training Grip

The Karma Lady Training Grip helps you practise a repeatable hand position on the golf club. The moulded finger positions give orientation when gripping and make it easier to consciously train your grip technique. This version is designed for right-handed women with a slimmer grip size. The available product data state a weight of 62 g and a core size of 0.560 inch. The training grip is particularly suitable for practice clubs and targeted grip exercises.
